

GATOR HISTORY & RECORDS

WOMEN'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

Both the Florida men's and women's programs boast a successful AIAW/NCAA Championships tradition, dating back to 1954 for the men and 1979 for the women. Prior to the NCAA's sponsoring of women's championship events, the UF women ranked among the nation's top competitors as a member of the AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) since 1972.

The men's program has competed in 40 NCAA Championship meets, winning back-to-back team titles in 1983 and 1984, while finishing amongst the nation's top-10 a total of 27 times, including 17 years in a row from 1978-94. The women's team won the inaugural NCAA women's title in 1982 and has placed in the top-10 a total of 20 times, with 13 top-three finishes. In AIAW competition, the women finished in the top-five six out of eight years, while winning the 1979 title. The women own 15 AIAW titles and 85 NCAA event titles, while the Gators have earned 35 total NCAA titles on the men's side.

1982 NCAA CHAMPIONS

MARCH 18-20, 1982 • STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA • GAINESVILLE, FLA.

In 1982, the women's team claimed the inaugural NCAA Women's Swimming and Diving Championship, which they played host to in the Stephen C. O'Connell Center Natatorium. Winning 13 events, Florida outscored second-place Stanford, 505-383.

The team was led by two of the school's all-time greatest swimmers: the legendary Tracy Caulkins, a freshman, and Kathy Treible, a sophomore. Caulkins picked up five individual titles, winning the 100 and 200 butterfly and the 100, 200 and 400 individual medley. She also swam on the winning 400 medley relay. Treible dominated in her specialty with victories in the 50, 100 and 200 breaststroke, as well as swimming on the winning 200 and 400 medley relays.

Caulkins went on to claim 12 individual NCAA and Southeastern Conference titles and racked up 21 All-America honors in her three years of collegiate swimming. Treible won six NCAA individual titles and 12 SEC crowns, while earning 28 All-America honors during her four-year career. Caulkins and Treible, along with former Gator Nicole Haislett (1991-94), are the only swimmers in SEC history to win as many titles.

Diver Megan Neyer was also a freshman in 1982. The 1982 Championships were the first of her four NCAA sweeps. Neyer took top honors in the one and three-meter diving competitions. She repeated the feat in 1983, 1984 and 1986, becoming the only diver to sweep in all four years of eligibility.

Winning the inaugural event at home put the finishing touch on a flawless season. The Gators recorded a 10-0 dual-meet record and won the SEC title by 325 points. Head Coach Randy Reese was named the NCAA Women's Coach of the Year as well.

The Florida men's fifth-place NCAA finish in 2009 marked the fourth time in the last five years UF has finished in the top five, and the tenth-straight year UF has placed in the top 10. For the first time since 2006, the Gators reeled in three individual national championship titles at the 2009 meet in College Station, Texas.

1983 NCAA CHAMPIONS

MARCH 24-26, 1983 • INDIANA UNIVERSITY INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

It came down to the final race – the 400 freestyle relay – and a group of underclassmen came through in true Gator style to capture the school's first men's NCAA Championship.

The Gators entered the meet as the crowd favorite, but powerhouses Texas, Southern Methodist and Stanford were thought to be the teams to beat. Although Florida won no individual event titles in the meet, they placed swimmers in the championship finals 13 times to claim the team victory.

The Gators did capture two relay events, as the 800 free relay, consisting of Geoff Gaberino, Eric Boyer, Mike Heath and Albert Mestre, set an American and NCAA record with a winning time of 6:25.29. Gaberino, Donald Gibb, Mestre and Heath combined to take the 400 free relay title (2:54.06), just edging SMU and their standout anchor Steve Lundquist, whom Heath held off for the win.

The first day of action saw Florida in third place, trailing SMU and Texas, while the second day saw the Gators move to second place behind SMU.

Of the 15 Gator competitors at the meet, there were only two seniors and three juniors. Twelve of the athletes combined to earn 33 All-America honors. The win wrapped up a Southeastern Conference Championship and 5-2 dual-meet record season for the Gator squad under head coach Randy Reese, who was named the 1983 NCAA Men's Coach of the Year.

1984 NCAA CHAMPIONS

MARCH 21-24, 1984 • CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY CLEVELAND, OHIO

For the second-straight year, Florida captured the NCAA Championship, outscoring Texas and Stanford in a down-to-the-wire meet. The final event – the 400 freestyle relay – again proved to be the deciding race, as the Gator team of Geoff Gaberino, Albert Mestre, Duffy Dillon and Mike Heath finished second with a time of 2:54.22 to secure the team title.

Florida displayed superlative depth, winning just one individual title and one relay event, yet having 15 athletes score in 12 finals and seven consolation finals.

Heath captured the 200 free with a pool-record time of 1:34.94, while the 800 free relay, consisting of Gaberino, Mestre, Dillon and Heath, won the event with a time of 6:21.29, surpassing the NCAA record set by UF in 1983 – a mark which still stands.

Fourteen Gators earned 35 All-America honors, while head coach Randy Reese was honored as the NCAA Men's Coach of the Year for the second-consecutive season. The NCAA title followed the Gators second-straight Southeastern Conference title and a 9-1 dual meet record for the 1983-84 season.

GATOR SEC CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

FLORIDA

SWIMMING & DIVING

IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Both the Florida men and women's swimming and diving programs have dominated the Southeastern Conference since league competition began, dating back to 1937 for the men and 1981 for the women. The men's team has claimed 33 SEC Championships, 18 more than its closest competitor, Auburn (15). The women have claimed 17 out of 29 possible league crowns, including 11 consecutive from 1986 through 1997, and their most recent title in 2009. Both teams boast numerous SEC honors, as the men's history includes 18 SEC Male Swimmer of the Year awards and four SEC Male Diver of the Year selections, while the SEC Female Swimmer of the Year has been a Gator 17 times after senior Gemma Spofforth was awarded the honor at the 2009 SEC Championship meet at Auburn. Florida coaches have also earned 20

SEC Swimming Coach of the Year accolades and six SEC Diving Coach of the Year awards, including five by current diving coach Donnie Craine.

2008 SEC Women's Coach of the Year

Combined, the two teams have won 643 SEC-event titles and received 410 SEC Academic Honor Roll accolades.

GATOR OLYMPIC TRADITION

did YOU KNOW?

- Approximately 25 current and former Gators represented over 20 different countries at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, bringing home eight medals and establishing six National Records
- Gator swimmers have accounted for 73 all-time Olympic medals, 36 of which are gold

Florida molds Olympic Champions

- Gator Great Ryan Lochte's three gold medals and six overall medals are the most for any men's swimmer in UF history
- Lochte is the first Gator U.S. men's swimmer to win an individual gold medal, joining Martin Zubero (Spain), Anthony Nesty (Suriname) and Duncan Armstrong (Australia) as Gator men with individual gold
- Catie Ball, representing the United States, captured the first-ever Gator Olympic swimming medal when she earned the gold as a member of the 1968 400-meter MR team
- Former Gator Dara Torres was the first American to swim in five Olympiads (1984, 1988, 1992, 2000 & 2008), and also became the oldest female swimmer, at the age of 41, to make a U.S. swimming team
- Torres has accounted for twelve Olympic medals, which is tops among Florida swimmers
- Only seven Gators competed in the 1980 Olympic Games in Moscow because of the U.S. and Canadian boycott, despite 13 qualifying to compete
- The Gators earned a total of 20 medals at the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, which was the most ever in Gator swimming history, and accounted for all medals won by athletes with ties to UF
- Florida swimmers have won a medal in every Olympiad since 1968

FLORIDA'S OLYMPIC TRADITION

At the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Beijing, the Gators upheld the tradition of excellence surrounding the Orange and Blue swimming and diving program in the Olympic realm, sending over 20 current and former Gator swimmers overseas. Joining the athletes, head coach Gregg Troy was named assistant coach of the U.S. men's team, while associate head coach Anthony Nesty served as coach for his native country, Suriname, for the second-consecutive Summer Games.

On the 20th Anniversary of Nesty's 100-meter fly gold medal from the Seoul Games in 1988, Nesty was honored as Suriname's flag bearer at the 2008 Opening Games, an emotional experience for the successful coach. In addition to Nesty, two-time Barbados Olympian and current Gator senior Bradley Ally also carried the Barbados flag at the Opening Ceremonies.

In swimming action from the Water Cube in China, Florida swimmers prevailed, bringing home eight Olympic medals, two gold, three silver and three bronze. Two-time Olympian Ryan Lochte secured his first-ever Olympic gold individual medal, claiming a World Record in the 200 back, pairing that with his gold medal as a member of the 800-meter free relay team. Lochte rallied for bronze in both the 200 and 400 IM events, bringing his Beijing medal count to four, and his overall Olympic medal total to six.

Florida great Dara Torres rewrote the history books as the only female swimmer to compete in five Olympic games, and at the age of 41, Torres brought home her 10th, 11th and 12th Olympic medals, all silver, achieved in the 50 free, and as a member of the 400 freestyle and medley relays. While Torres was the Florida veteran at the Games, 2008 senior swimmer Caroline Burckle made her Olympic debut in high fashion, swimming a lifetime best time in her 200-meter free leg of the women's 800 free relay. The 2008 NCAA Swimmer of the Year's split was the second-fastest on the relay team that brought home the bronze medal, Burckle's first ever representing the United States.

While the U.S. athletes experienced tremendous success, Ally (Barbados, 400 IM), and UF swimmers Shaune Fraser (Cayman Islands, 200 free), Omar Pinzon (Colombia, 100 back), Adam Sioui (Canada, 200 fly), Gemma Spofforth (Great Britain, 100 back) and J.B. Walsh (Philippines, 200 fly), all shattered their respective country's National Records in one or more of their events. Spofforth captured not only the British Commonwealth record, but also the European Record in the 100 back, placing fourth individually in the event.

Fraser closed out the 2008 Games as the flag bearer for the Cayman Islands at the Closing Ceremony, shutting the history books after another year of tremendous success in Olympic history for the University of Florida.

In the 2004 games held in Athens, Greece, 11 athletes and one coach with ties to Florida swimming competed in the world competition. Competing in men's swimming events, Gator swimmers captured two gold medals and one silver medal. Ryan Lochte, swimming in his first Olympic Games, swam the second leg of the American record-setting 800-meter FR that captured the gold medal. Lochte two days later returned to the pool to capture the men's 200-meter IM silver as he set a new Florida record in the event. Darian Townsend, also competing in his first Olympic Games, raced into history as his South African relay team shocked the world by claiming the gold medal in the 400-meter FR in a new world record time. In the women's swimming events, Dana Vollmer won Olympic gold as a member of the world record-setting 800-meter FR in her first Olympic Games.

Three-time Olympians Bryan Kim of South Korea, Alex Lopez of Puerto Rico and Ricardo Monasterio of Venezuela, each recorded strong performances in their respective events over the seven-day swimming competition at the Olympic Aquatic Centre. Carlos Jayme of Brazil, the only two-time men's UF Olympian in the games, competed in three events in Athens.

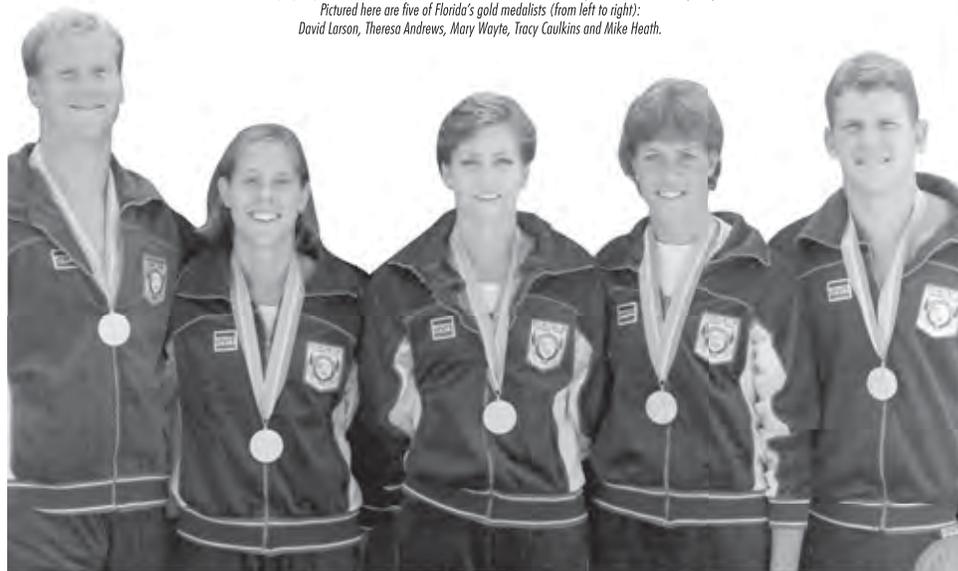

First-time Olympians Gabriel Mangabeira of Brazil and J.B. Walsh, representing the Philippines, each had solid performances. Mangabeira qualified for the finals in the 100-meter butterfly in a new South American and Brazilian-record time.

Current Gators' associate head coach Anthony Nesty, a former Olympic gold and bronze medalist, was an assistant coach to his native country of Suriname.

Swimming for Germany, former Gator standout Vipa Bernhardt competed in her first Olympics. Two-time Olympian (2000, 2004) Janelle Atkinson, swam for her home country of Jamaica.

At the 2000 Olympics, a total of 11 swimmers with UF ties competed, while a pair of coaches also made the trip to Sydney. Associate head coach Martyn Wilby served as the head coach for the Barbados team, coaching former Gator Leah Martindale in her second Olympic games, while former UF assistant coach Rich DeSelm served as the assistant team manager for the U.S. Team. He was joined by former Gator standout Dara Torres, who made history as the first U.S. female swimmer to qualify for four Olympic Games. Ashley Tappin, another former Gator, also competed for the United States.

Making their Olympic debuts, Atkinson swam for Jamaica and Jayme competed for Brazil. The 11 athletes with UF ties competed for 10 different nations, claiming seven medals. Following the Sydney games, Florida has placed 72 swimmers and divers in the Olympic games, a total of 104 times. The Gators' strong Olympic tradition has brought a great deal of pride for the University over the years.

Florida's Olympic history dates back to the 1968 Olympic Games when Catie Ball became Florida's first Olympian and first medalist, capturing a gold medal as a member of the U.S.A. 400 medley relay at the 1968 Games. Tim McKee (U.S.A.) was UF's first individual medalist, claiming two silver medals (200 and 400 IM) at the 1972 Games in Munich, West Germany. McKee returned to the 1976 Olympics in Montreal, capturing a second silver medal in the 400 IM. Six additional Gators also competed at the 1976 Games, representing four different countries.

Thirteen Gators qualified for the 1980 Games in Moscow but only seven actually competed due to the U.S. and Canada's boycott. Making his second consecutive Olympic appearance, David Zubero (Spain) earned a bronze medal in the 100 butterfly, while Frederic Delcourt (400 MR, France) and Chris Snode (spring board diving, Great Britain) advanced to the championship finals of their respective events.

While Florida swimmers have captured medals in every Olympiad since 1968, no year can compare to the 1984 summer of Gator gold. With former UF head coach Randy Reese serving as an assistant to the U.S. team, Florida swimmers appeared on the award stand 19 times, picking up the gold on 13 occasions. Twenty Gators represented eight different nations, compiling such an impressive total that if the University of Florida was a nation, it would have finished second to the U.S.A. in the swimming competition and 14th overall among the 140 competing countries.

Gator standout Mike Heath (U.S.A.) led the way with four medals, claiming gold in the 400 FR, 800 FR and the 400 MR (prelims), with the 800 FR setting a world record. Heath also captured a silver medal in the 200 free.

The women's team was led by the legendary Tracy Caulkins (U.S.A.), who was closing out her illustrious career. Caulkins picked up three golds: the 200 IM (U.S. and Olympic record), the 400 IM (U.S. record) and the 400 MR. Mary Wayte and Theresa Andrews each earned two golds for the U.S.A. Wayte won the 200 free and was a member of the 400 FR (prelims), while Andrews captured gold in the 100 back (1:02.55) and the 400 MR (4:08.34). Also claiming gold medals for the U.S. were Geoff Gaberino (800 FR), David Larson (800 FR) and Dara Torres (400 FR).

Four years later in Seoul, South Korea, 14 Florida swimmers earned a combined three gold, three silver and five bronze medals while representing six different countries. Former Gator flyer Nesty captured the first Olympic medal ever for his homeland of Suriname, winning the gold in the 100 butterfly by edging seven-time medalist and U.S.A. favorite Matt Biondi by .01. Australia's Duncan Armstrong, who raced to a gold medal in the 200 free, staged another upset. Matt Ceilinski picked up the Gators' third gold as part of the U.S.A.'s World and Olympic record-setting 800 FR. Four UF women earned bronze medals as part of the U.S.A. 400 FR, with Paige Zemina swimming in preliminaries and Dara Torres, Laura Walker and Mary Wayte combining for three-fourths of the squad in the finals.

The 1992 Olympics in Barcelona, Spain, became the second most successful Olympics in Florida history. Twenty-five athletes competed for six countries in five sports, winning 13 medals, including eight golds. The Gators swimming program boasted 15 Olympians in 1992, claiming seven gold, one silver and two bronze medals, while former UF head coach Chris Martin served as an assistant for the U.S. women's team.

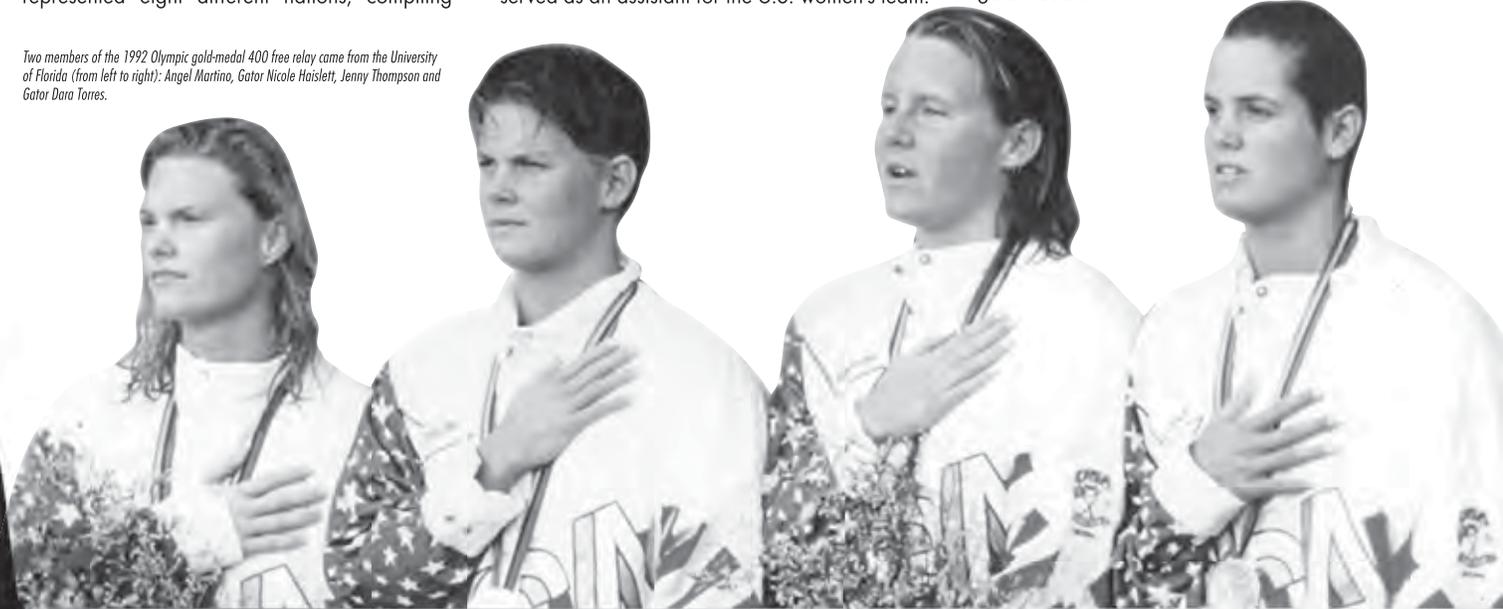

Allison Wagner captured the 46th Olympic medal in the history of Gator Swimming and Diving, claiming a silver medal in the 400 individual medley at the 1996 Games.

UF's Nicole Haislett led the women's team, capturing three gold medals - the most of any U.S. competitor and tied for the most golds of any female Olympic athlete. Haislett's titles came in the 200 free and as a member of the world record-setting 400 FR and the 400 MR (prelims). Former Gator Dara Torres, appearing and medaling in her third straight Olympic Games, was also a member of the winning 400 FR. UF's Martin Zubero was also a hero of the Games as he became the first Spanish swimmer to bring home a gold medal, winning the 200 backstroke.

Former Gator Greg Burgess (U.S.A.) added a silver medal in the 400 IM, while Nesty and Stephen Clarke (Canada), claimed bronze medals in the 100 butterfly and 400 MR, respectively.

Gator swimmers continued to build on Florida's established Olympic tradition at the 1996 Summer Olympic Games in Atlanta, Ga. Former Florida standout Allison Wagner added to the medal count, capturing a silver medal in the 400 IM - the 54th Olympic medal claimed by a Gator swimmer and diver since 1968. Wagner was also a finalist in the 200 IM, placing sixth. UF's Stephen Clarke, representing Canada, made his second Olympic appearance, reaching the finals of the 100 butterfly and the consolation finals of the 100 free, while setting Canadian national records in both events. Whitney Metzler also finished in her event, taking eighth in the 400 IM. After the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, China, the Gators have claimed 73 medals, including 36 gold medals.

ALL-TIME SWIMMING & DIVING ROSTER

ALL-TIME WOMEN'S SWIMMING AND DIVING ROSTER

Women's Swimming officially became a varsity sport at the University of Florida during the 1972-73 season. Roster members listed are from 1972 to current. We do have several missing records including information for the 1972-73, 1979-80 and 1981-82 seasons. For additions or corrections to this list, please contact Kelly Reynolds in UF Communications, (352) 375-4683 (Ext. 6175)
